COMMUNICATING EFFECTIVELY AND WITH EMPATHY

How You Learn

Reflecting on the definition of Authentic Conversations, consider suggested activities on the next page to build this leadership capability. Create a personalized plan that provides you with the right blend of formal, social, and action learning.

● Formal Learning

10% of learning is structured. This may include classroom training, eLearning, courses, articles, books, podcasts, and self-reflection surveys.

● Social Learning

20% of an individual's skill development comes through social learning opportunities like mentorship, coaching, collaborative opportunities with peers.

● Action Learning

70% comes through on-the-job experience. Experiential learning allows an individual to immerse themselves in the nuances of their role, refine skills, and work their way through real challenges.

Action Learning

- During your next challenging conversation
Listen actively to understand others' perspectives

Use "I" statements and share your perspective on the impact of the behaviour without assigning blame

Use conversational language to better connect and build rapport
- Ask for and provide appreciative and constructive feedback
Reflect on your response to the feedback

Reflect on your approach and the value you provided
- Prepare for an upcoming feedback conversation by describing the situation, the observable behaviours, the impact, and inquiring about intent (SBI-I)

Reflect whether this approach helped you to manage and work through the anxiety that can be associated with delivering and receiving feedback

Social Learning

- Listen actively to others in a conversation and be curious about their needs and perspectives
- Identify the behaviour styles of your team members, and flex your communication to meet their needs

Ask for feedback on the effectiveness and authenticity of your communication
- Observe effective and authentic communicators

Reflect on how they made you feel

Identify specific behaviours you could start, stop and continue doing
